2013 ROOKIE CLASS AT THE ALLIANZ CHAMPIONSHIP INCLUDES ROCCO MEDIATE, STEVE ELKINGTON AND BART BRYANT

Boca Raton, FL – Ryan Dillon, Tournament Director of the Allianz Championship, announced today the 2013 Rookies for the tournament include Rocco Mediate, who lost in sudden death to Tiger Woods at the U.S. open at Torrey Pines, along with winning the Doral-Ryder Open. The field at the Allianz Championship consistently ranks in the top 10 on the Champions Tour.

“We’re thrilled at the Rookies that are coming to South Florida for the first time, for a Champions Tour event, adding to what is already an outstanding field at the Allianz Championship, South Florida’s premier golf event,” says Dillon.

Steve Elkington has won the PGA Championship along with the PLAYERS Championship twice and the Doral-Ryder Open. The three Rookies have combined to win over 43 Million Dollars in their careers.

The Allianz Championship is being held for the seventh consecutive year at The Old Course at Broken Sound in Boca Raton, and defending champion Corey Pavin is set to defend his title. Again this year, the Boca Raton Regional Hospital is the beneficiary of the Allianz Championship. The tournament is managed by Pro Links Sports, directing five Champions Tour events on the 2013 schedule, all of which are continuously voted in the top ten tournaments on the Champions Tour by the players. This reputation has attracted the top 31 of 34 professionals on the money list to Boca Raton along with the golfing legends that are engraved in all our minds. The Allianz Life Insurance Company has been the title sponsor of this tournament since its beginning.
